

FARM SHOW

For everyone in agriculture interested in latest new products. Carries no advertising!

Vol. 13, No. 4, 1989
$2.00

Latest New "Made It Myself" Inventions Born In Farm Workshops

Lynn Owens gets lots of strange looks and comments from people wanting to know where in the world he bought his unusual eye-catching pickup.

"Dually" Pickup Built Out Of A '57 Chevy

Ralph West's "go anywhere" buggy can travel across bean rows without damaging the crop.

This issue's exciting parade of farmer inventions starts right here on the cover and continues on the next page. Good Reading!

Mark Newhall, Editor

"It combines the best features of a Belarus and a Cleaver," says farmer Perry Jensen of the "hybrid" combine he built for only $10,000.

Homemade Combine

Thin-Wheeled Buggy Cuts Across Bean Rows

IN THIS ISSUE: Ag World

- | | |
|--|---|
| 3 Rotary mower replaces combine sickle | 22 He converts big round bales to square bales |
| 5 Shooting unused silos off the tax rolls | 24 Farmers nominate best, worst tillage tools |
| 6 Low-cost way to add tractor duals | 25 Low-cost replacement pickup for big balers |
| 16 "Stretched" axles reduce compaction | 26 Add-on kicker for big round balers |
| 17 Rancher uses camels for brush control | 32 On-the-go soil sampler |
| 18 Miniature animal business booming | 33 Big bale hauler made from irrigation pipe |
| 32 Handy new "greaser" adds life to sealed bearings | |

Order Form For New
Subscribers -p. 36