

More Letters . . .

I have just received and read the charter issue of FARM SHOW. Congratulations to you for putting out this new publication. It has been tough to keep up to date on the latest developments in agriculture and your publication will provide a real service to the agriculture industry.

It was good to see the many photos and the down to earth description of the latest new products. I also appreciate getting complete addresses of the companies putting out the new products so they can be contacted if additional information is desired.

Best wishes as you edit and publish FARM SHOW "for everyone in agriculture interested in latest new products".

Congratulations on your charter issue of FARM SHOW. It's a good looking tab that's bound to whet the interest of our farmer friends who seem to have an insatiable thirst for news — especially news of new products and gadgets. And I'm sure they'll appreciate your "straight shooter" approach editorially.

I really like the write up on Seaborn Plus F in your Charter Issue of FARM SHOW. We are really busy with meetings. And the product is really moving out to the farmers.

I have read your charter issue of FARM SHOW and was very impressed with the information presented on each product. I particularly like the "buying tips" section.

Congratulations on your first issue and good luck!

Congratulations! I think your very first issue is well done. I read it with a great deal of interest. I'm sure your other subscribers will react very much the same. I'm particularly interested in the article on page 29, dealing with the wood furnace. That sounds almost too good to be true!

John Buman

I think you have a real good magazine. Would like to see some articles on new machinery for the small farmers — like 3-plow and 4-row equipment.

"Huss" Johnson

Very impressive! Top graphics. Highly readable. You've got a winner!

I am in receipt of your first issue of FARM SHOW and I do want to congratulate you on an excellent job. The publication is very interesting and has a lot of new product ideas. I'm looking forward to receiving future editions.

Phoenix, Ariz.

Now I can't think why any farmer needs to spend twenty, thirty or more dollars to go to a farm equipment show when he can have a complete and spectacular farm show brought right to his mail box. That's because I have just spent about two hours reading . . . not quite cover to cover but almost . . . a copy of your charter issue of FARM SHOW.

You are to be congratulated on having done a splendid job. All best wishes for success. FARM SHOW richly deserves it.

I just received my Charter Issue of the new FARM SHOW. I'm really amazed that you have so much new material in your first issue. What are you going to do for an encore? That issue was worth ten times what I paid for it. What I like about the newspaper is you're telling it like it really is.

Gordon L. Berg
Willoughby, Ohio

I believe your paper will be a great asset to the farming industry. I especially like the "good and bad buys" part of your paper as it helps someone else to learn from someone else's experiences. It is being a good neighbor.

Darlene S. Boroff
Alda, Neb.

Just a note to tell you how pleased and enthused I am about your magazine. Someone should have thought of it long ago. It's bound to be a success.

Congratulations on a fine first issue of Farm Show! Your charter issue is attractively-designed, carries a wealth of clear illustrations, and certainly concentrates its content on what your statement says it will.
